55 Ask For Change In Truck Route

Fifty-five of the 60 residents along the north truck route from Highway No. 1 into town have signed a peitition requesting the city council to redirect the route. Robert Martin will present the petition at the next city council meeting.

Pieces of Rosita Lodge, Martin's Inn, have been torn off on several occasions by heavy rigs failing to make the curve at Fourth and Torres. Martin will be before the council for the first time on this issue, but not Rosita Lodge. The former owner also petitioned the council for a change in the truck route. Rosita Lodge has had its years of battering.

"Every time they hear a crash the neighbors come running and want to know how badly damaged the lodge is this time," Martin said.

The residents along the route have stated their case in their petition which reads in part: "The narrow streets, presently used, have become inadequate for the ever-increasing truck traffic, particularly of such conveyances as the big semi-trailers and oil tankers.

"The sharp (90 degree) turns on the present route necessitate the frequent use of brakes, shifting of gears, and cause trucks to occupy both traffic lanes at such corners, thereby endangering the regular motor traffic at these turns. Furthermore, the vibrations caused by these vehicles are a disturbance to the homes along these narrow streets. This problem becomes pronounced when the trucks

Olivia Young's New Poetry-Photograph Book Out This Week

Take The Dirt Road is the title of a new book of photographs and poetry which has just been published by Wake-Brook House and is now being distributed nationally. The author-photographer is Olivia Young, the wife of artist George Young. She lives in Pacific Grove and conducts Poetry Workshop for Carmel Adult School.

Carmel and vicinity are the subject of many of the pictures and the free verse which is keyed to the pictures. Several of the poems in the book first appeared in The Pine Cone and credit is given to this newspaper in the acknowledgment.

Although Take The Dirt Road is in no sense a fat volume, there are 28 photographs reproduced in large size, and the scope of the book covers so wide an area that the reader feels he is covering considerable ground. The poetry is readable and enjoyable.

The book is published in two editions; a collectors' edition limited to the number of copies presubscribed by collectors all over the world who vie for the low numbered copies of this firm's books; and a trade edition for sale in bookstores. Both editions are hand made and bound in unusual fabrics. The designer is Helene Geauque, who has maintained a studio in Carmel for many years.

"Speaking of drives, lady, there's a good drive goin' on, the Community Chest Drive starts September 19th"

The Monterey Peninsula Community Chest Fund Drive for 1961 will officially open September 18 when President Eisenhower will address the nation over a national radio and TV hook-up in behalf of Community Chest. Solicition starts September 19. The goal for 1961 is $160,000, and the Carmel Area is asked to raise $32,000.

Mrs. Mike H. Dormody and Mrs. Michael D. Elliott, co-chairmen for the Carmel residential area, have been successfully recruiting volunteer workers for the past month.

The volunteer solicitors from Carmel residential and Lower Carmel Valley will meet September 16 in All Saints' Parish House for a talk by Colonel Howland, General Campaign Chairman, and to see the colored sound film, Your Community Chest, which was written and made by the Chest.

Lower Carmel Valley's co-chairmen are Mrs. Blair McDonald and Mrs. Robert E. McDonald III.

Planners Approve Same Downgrading Zoning Ordinance

Meeting last night for half an hour, the Carmel Planning Commission adopted their proposed zoning ordinance and sent it to the city council for hearing and adoption.

Because of a delay in passage of an ordinance which will relieve the city of the responsibility of notifying a "zone of influence" in re-zoning matters, the council will not set a time for public hearing on the new zoning ordinance until early in October, probably for a date late in the month.

The planning commission's final revisions as worked out Friday afternoon and evening are minor. They do not take into consideration the objections of a majority of the council to the C-2 uses that would be allowed through use permit in the newly created C-1-S zone, gasoline stations, plumbing establishments, bus depots, etc.

These objections were expressed at two joint planning commis-

Five-year-old April Masten, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ric Masten, started school on Tuesday in Mrs. Marcia De Voe's River School kindergarten class.

April's grandmother, Mrs. Hildreth Hare, gave her an apple to take to her teacher that came off a six-foot tree in Mrs. Hare's garden on Hatton Road. It was red and yellow, 14 inches in diameter and on the sides four and five inches high. All the other apples on the tree were tiny and green.

However, while April's great-aunt, Mrs. Eleanor James, was taking a picture of April and the Apple, the former nibbled the latter, so Mrs. De Voe didn't receive April's Apple on opening day.

Carmel Youth Center still lacks $2000 to reach its current fund drive of $7,600, according to Jack Giles, Youth Center director of activities. He reports checks are being received from interested persons in various parts of the United States, also youth center members raised $80 with a dance last Friday night following the Beach Rally.

Four hundred members and guests attended the dance, he reports, one of the largest attendances in the 11-year history of the teenage recreation spot.

Tomorrow evening there will be another dance for Youth Center members following the election of officers for the coming year.

Funds raised by the current drive will be used to keep the Youth Center open for a other year. Withdrawal of Com nunity

Carmel Bed Tax Waits On Other Peninsula Cities

Carmel will talk over its proposed "bed tax" with other Peninsulans before accepting or rejecting it as a revenue measure, city councilmen decided last night.

The suggested tax on beds or rooms in motels and hotels was one of four revenue measures pondered again at the council meeting. Two others, a proposal to increase traffic fines from $2.00 to $2.50, and one to issue permits for use of the post office parking lot, were rejected on recommendation of administration committee reports.

A fourth, involving revision of business license fees, was on the agenda but no report was made by the committee.

Councilmen adopted a suggestion of the same committee that Carmel call a joint meeting with mayors and councilmen of other Peninsula cities and with innkeepers who would be affected to discuss merits of the bed or room tax plan.

The council action was greeted by a warning from Councilman Gunnar Norberg that Carmel's special problems as a tourist attraction might offer no common ground for outside discussions, and by one from Mayor Frank Putnam that to work without the cooperation of the Motel Operators' Association and others would lead to a long battle with nothing accomplished.

Councilman Francis Whitaker said he thought the meeting was a good idea, but that "the increase in the budget makes it mandatory that Carmel might have to adopt some measure that would not meet the approval of the rest of the Peninsula."

Harrison Godwin, speaking from the audience as a representative of the innkeepers, said, "Hotelmen and innkeepers are having a rough time; even the federal government recognizes that. Take a little time to look into this thing." He offered to produce figures backing up his statement.

In course of the discussion of revenue measures, Mayor Putnam reminded the council that the ad-

Congressman To Speak At Carmel's P. O. Party Monday

Postmaster Fred Strong announces that Congressman Charles M. Teague has accepted his invitation to attend Carmel's Post Office Party on Monday evening.

This morning the San Francisco regional office of the Post Office Department informed Mr. Strong that Roy H. Oxsen, field service officer, will come to Carmel to speak at informal ceremonies shortly after the party starts on Monday. Mr. Oxsen is the direct connecting officer between the regional director of the Post Office Department in San Francisco and postmasters in this region, Mr. Strong says.

The celebration, at the enlarged post office, starts at 6:00 o'clock so that businessmen, merchants, doctors, lawyers, dentists and all other persons who serve the public can attend before they go home to dinner, according to Robert Spencer, president of the Carmel Business Association, sponsors of the community party.

Punch, cookies and coffee will be served at no cost until the end of the party at 9:00 o'clock. During these hours postmaster Strong and his staff will show the public how the post office handles mail. (We want to see where Sparky parks his scooter.)

Neil Armstrong will play popular and patriotic music on the organ. There will be an informal 15 minutes of speech making by dignitaries.

Everyone in town is invited.

Carmel Adult School, Opening On Monday, Offers Opportunities To Acquire New Skills And Knowledge

The fall semester of the Carmel Adult School starts Monday evening, September 12.

Several new classes will be offered. Business Law, a course designed for both lay and business people, will be taught by Thomas Twohig. Art Metal, which may include some jewelry and lapidary work besides basic metal work, will be taught by James Agan. The metal shop will also be open to those taking machine woodworking, so they can make their own metal fittings. Jacques Ilbek of the Army Language School is replacing Albert Gau, who received a new assignment in Hawaii, as the French instructor. Mrs. Leni Bergin will teach beginning Shorthand, and Mrs. Maxine Shore will conduct a class in Writing for Publication. Mrs. Olivia Young, after a semester's rest, will again teach a class in Poetry Workshop.

Other classes offered include: Color and Still Life, Life Drawing, Outdoor Painting (both beginning and advanced), Portraits (Charcoal and Pastel), Sketching and Painting, Typing, Citizenship, Mosaics, Pottery, Weaving, Driver Education, English for New Americans, Carmel Parent Nursery School, Pattern Drafting, Sewing, Italian, Russian, Spanish, Machine Woodworking and Symphony Orchestra.

1960 CARMEL HIGH FOOTBALL SCHEDULE

Opening with an abbreviated 15-minute "game" in the Coast Counties Athletic League Jamboree on September 16 and closing with arch-rival Pacific Grove on November 11, the Carmel High Padres will attempt to keep their 26-game win streak intact against seven challengers during the 1960 season. First league action for the Padres is slated for Friday night, September 30 when the Red & Gray journeys to Gilroy for a showdown battle with Coach Red Elder's Mustangs. Gilroy is rated as a top contender for the B-league crown this season and has a 200-pound line ahead of a veteran backfield.

The Padre junior-varsity will play preliminaries to all the varsity games except the El Capitan game at Merced. Carmel's varsity travels to Merced on Friday, October 14 for an 8:00 o'clock game while Coach Fred Rainer's ambitious jayvees take on the Live Oak varsity the following day at Bardarson Field. The Padre junior-varsity will also host the strong North Salinas junior-varsity on Saturday, September 24.

Coach Hadley Hicks' lightweight squad will open the 1960 season against the North Salinas lightweight reserves in a preliminary to the September 24 jayvee game. The lightweights have a five-game schedule lined up against North Salinas, Pacific Grove, King City, Live Oak, and Hollister.

The 1960 varsity and jayvee schedule:

September 16—CCAL Jamboree at MPC.

September 23 — Red & Gray game.

September 24 — North Salinas jayvees—Here.

September 30—Gilroy—There*.

October 8—King City—Here.

October 14—Merced—There*

October 15—Live Oak jayvees—Here.

October 21—Gonzales—There*

October 29—San Lorenzo Valley—Here.

November 5—Hollister—Here.

November 11—Pacific Grove—Here.

*Night game.

CCAL GRID SQUADS PREPARE FOR SEASON

With the defending champion Carmel Padres as the prime target, all the CCAL B-division schools buckled down to serious conditioning drills during the past week in preparation for a strenuous season which should find five teams making a serious bid for the title. From a personnel standpoint, the 1960 season finds all the teams more evenly matched than in past years and there is no outstanding favorite to run away with the championship. The Hollister Haybalers were figured to have easy going during the 1959 season but ran into the spirited Padres in a battle for the championship and were upset, 38 to 14. However, the Haybalers are again loaded with exceptional grid talent and will be right up with the leaders when the final whistle blows. With a new coaching staff which leans toward the single-wing power type of football, the Haybalers have a veteran team returning to make their new offense hum. Outstanding Hollister players back for another year are fullback Dave Parker, one of the best running backs in the league; quarterback Lou Tortorelli; guards Ernest Carrasco and Bob France; ends Earl Bailey and Larry Hodges; tackles Steve Bennett and John Stienfelt; and center Larry Mullins. The Haybalers also have a host of talented junior-varsity players moving up for varsity action this season.

Coach Red Elder is high on his Gilroy Mustangs this season and freely predicts they will snare the flag. With 18 lettermen returning for further action, the likeable Mustang mentor can rightly exude confidence for a winner during the 1960 season. A veteran backfield consisting of quarterback Richard Reyes, Tom Hanna, Amado Hernandez, and Eric Spohr gives the Mustangs fine passing, good speed, and exceptional power. Headed by Dick Jones, a 230 pound center, the Gilroy forward wall averages well over 200 pounds. Coach Elder's biggest loss from his 1959 varsity was his son Mike who led all the B-division ground gainers last season.

Over at Pacific Grove the spirit is high and Coach Charley Howell has two good ones at every position. The Breakers gave the Padres their toughest tussle last season and the Red & Gold backers are sure this year's veteran squad can go all the way. A solid backfield consisting of quarterback Roger Busico, halfbacks Butch Johnson and Mike Sexton, and fullback Fred McGaughey gives the Breakers plenty of speed to compliment the hardest running fullback in the league. While the Pacific Grove line has been small for the past two seasons, this year's forward wall will go better than 190 with game-seasoned veterans at every position.

Coach Ernie Piper's King City squad has had two years to absorb the intricacies of the single-wing offense and could upset some of the league favorites. A big line, anchored by 230 pound Don Schmidt, will be tough to handle and should be able to open big running lanes for the speedy Mustang backs. The Mustangs are CCAL track champions and the sprinters are well represented in this year's backfield.

Gonzales has a bevy of speed backs but lacks the big stuff up front to cope with the likes of Gilroy or Hollister. The Spartans are always dangerous and usually manage to upset a favorite or two before the season is over.

Coach Wayne Richards at San Lorenzo Valley has inherited some players from the Santa Cruz district and figures to be better stocked with substitutes than he was in the past season. The Cougars gave all the big ones a tussle during the first half but usually ran out of gas during the final two quarters.

The Carmel Padres graduated seven all-league performers last June, but in Frank Mayo, Mike Drapeh, and Bill Coleman they have a trio of running backs which could be hard to stop. In the forward wall, veterans Paul Rice, John and Chris Wilkin, and Doyle Clayton give the 1959 champs good size and experienced performers to go along with the jayvee graduates.

All in all, the 1960 grid season in the CCAL B-division should be the most interesting in several seasons and the winner will know he has passed a rugged test before he finishes on top.

VAN KING TO HEAD CARMEL LITTLE LEAGUE

At Tuesday night's meeting of the Little League Corporation at Sunset Cafeteria, Van King, veteran Little League booster, was elected to preside over Little League affairs during the 1961 season. King succeeds Bob Connell at the helm of the popular baseball circuit and will be the third president of the highly successful league. Veteran umpire Howard Baxter was elected to the secretary post with Ralph Thompson getting the nod for vice-president and ex-president Bill Woolsey will fill the treasurer spot. Other members of the Little League Board are Art Carpenter, Newt Goodrich, Floyd Carter, Kiyo Fukagawa, Jack Mahoney, Jack Miller, Francis Sparolini, Gene Nissen, Richard Wright, and Ski Snopkowski.

sion council meetings, before and after the planning commission's public hearing. At the public hearing both residential and business property owners objected to the downgrading of over half of the business district in the proposed C-1-S zone through introduction of noisy and unsightly uses barred under the present ordinance. The planning commission has disregarded these objections.

Copies of the latest draft of the proposed zoning ordinance are available at city hall for 25 cents. The proposed ordinance should be studied only along with the existing ordinance so that one can realize the losses in protection, the downgrading the new ordinance will entail.

Ora Fallis, Student Of Lindsay-Oliver, To Give USO Recital

Ora Fallis, mezzo-soprano, will give a program of folk songs of English, Welsh, Scotch, Irish and American origin on September 12 at the Monterey USO, at 8:30 o'clock. She will be accompanied by her teacher, Mary Lindsay-Oliver, who will speak on the musical value of folk expression.

Miss Fallis is a native of St. Louis, and sang there in a chorus, also in one organized by Swenson in San Francisco when her parents came West. In Carmel as a member of the Mission Choir she began to study with Miss Lindsay-Oliver nearly three years ago and has kept diligently at it. She recently gave a similar recital at the Carmel Foundation which was very successful, for people love to hear these old songs with their appealing melodies and sentiments, and they particularly suit Miss Fallis' voice, though her study has involved every other kind of vocal composition.

Miss Lindsay-Oliver is well known on the Peninsula for her standards as instructor and music critic with her international background that includes London, New York, Washington and Middle West successes as musician and painter. She has written the notes in the Monterey County Symphony programs for the past five years, is a member of the National Music Critics' Association, the National Symphony League and Music Critic on the Pine Cone, with a recent request from Musical America to resume her former contributions to that journal.

There is just one week left in which to register and be eligible to vote in the November general election. County Clerk Emmett McMenamin emphasizes that any person who lived in a new precinct 54 days, in the county 90 days, or the state one year, should register before September 15 if he has not already done so.

Those persons who fail to vote in the November election will be stricken from voters' rolls, in accordance with a new law established at the last session of the State Legislature, Mr. McMenamin points out. He estimates this will affect 10,000 Monterey County residents. He also predicts 90,000 residents will fail to register before next Thursday, a situation he deplores.

Total enrollment in the Carmel Unified School District was 2,308 students on opening day, Tuesday. This is an increase of 155 students above school closing enrollment figures in June. Attendance this week by schools is: Carmelo, 115; River, 493; Sunset, 301; Tularcitos, 447; Woods, 230; Carmel High School, 722.

Largest student increase is at the High School, 108 students. Next largest is Tularcitos with an increased enrollment over last year of 32 pupils. River School has an increased enrollment of 83 pupils, but two sixth grades were moved this year from Sunset to River, accounting for the major part of the pupil increase at this school. Carmelo enrollment is the same as last year; Woods, 11 students less than in June. Sunset, without the two sixth grades, has a dropped enrollment of 57 pupils.

Enrollments in all five schools are expected to rise next week following tomorrow's Admission Day holiday.

City councilmen, on their monthly tree tour meeting Tuesday, gave permission to remove five trees, denied requests to remove two, allowed Crocker-Anglo Bank to trim oaks at Ocean and Dolores, established a 20 foot loading zone at Ocean and Junipero for I. Magnin, and a 20 foot entrance to the Christian Science Church parking lot, Lincoln north of Sixth, also decided a split oak on Dolores between Thirteenth and Santa Lucia needed "first aid".

Trees to be removed are two pines on Guadalupe between Second and Third to allow construction of a driveway for Jim Hieber; another infected tree in front of property owned by Mrs. Cree Wilder, Third between Monterey and Lobos; a stunted acacia on Carmelo between Eighth and Ninth at the request of Marie E. Rowland. Louis B. Sawyer was allowed to remove a dying tree at the corner of Fifth and Perry Newberry.

Action on Sidney Dibble's request for a driveway variance at the Wayfarer Inn was postponed until last night's council meeting, then granted.

Learning is not as sweet as it used to be, according to a release from the California Teachers Association, which states that a teaching machine developed in 1926 rewarded pupils with a candy when they punched the right answer button. Nowadays teaching machines flash a green light or give the recorded answer, "That's right, go ahead to the next question," when the pupil responds correctly.

The Rupert Leaches Receive Thank You From The Queen

Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Leach are displaying a letter from Balmoral Castle, Scotland, in the Ocean Avenue window of their Bib 'n Tucker children's shop. The letter is from Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II and acknowledges the gift of some little suits for her infant son, Prince Andrew.

Not long ago the Leaches learned of Her Majesty's fondness for the A. A. Milne characters which include Christopher Robin, Winnie-the-Pooh and Piglet. Their shop carries exclusive infants' clothes embroidered with Milne's characters, so they decided to send some of these garments to Prince Andrew through their long-time friend, Commander Richard Colville, the Queen's press secretary at Buckingham Palace.

The letter under the Balmoral Castle crest reads as follows:

Dear Mrs. Leach,

Commander Colville has forwarded the little suits which you have sent as a present for Prince Andrew.

I have had the honour of laying these before The Queen, and Her Majesty commands me to tell you how pleased she is with them and how very kind she thinks you are to have sent this lovely present for her son. They will be most useful, and I have to send you The Queen's best thanks.

Yours sincerely,
Vera Garing,
Lady-in-Waiting

Bessie Robinson

Mrs. Bessie Lillian Boles Robinson died on Sunday in a local hospital after a lengthy illness.

Mrs. Robinson was born in Clarksburg, Arkansas, on February 17, 1886. She taught music for 40 years before retiring and moving here from Los Alamos, New Mexico, six years ago. Her home was at Torres Street and First Avenue.

She was a member of the Carmel Woman's Club, Pi Beta Phi sorority and the Church of the Wayfarer.

Survivors are her husband, Clarence C. Robinson, and a niece, Mrs. Howard Richman of Concord.

Funeral services, conducted by Dr. K. Filmore Gray in the Church of the Wayfarer, were held on Tuesday afternoon. Inurnment was in the Little Chapel-by-the-Sea.

Jim Glaser Sends Home Second Report From Rome On Olympic Games

Hotel Excelsior, Roma
August 30, 1960

Out to see the Three-Day Team school. Their horses are stabled out at the site of the Three-Day Event, some 30 miles out from Rome, at the Pratoni di Vivaro, in the lovely Albanian hills, and some 1800 to 2000 feet above sea level, with the result that it's cool and pleasant there, relatively speaking, compared to Rome. Due to heat, our boys all do their schooling in the cool of the morning, so that we left the hotel at 5:30 a.m. Horses and riders all look fine, and just doing gentle work between now and the start of the Three-Day Event next Tuesday, although there are some of the other nations who seem to take a different attiude. However, pretty late to teach jumping, etc., if not already known!

Our three groups, Three-Day, Prize of Nations Jumping Team, and the two dressage girls all look very fit. They should give a good account of themselves. (Editor's note: They did!)

Dignity, great dignity to the Games, as well should be the case, one might say, but it's the dignity that should accompany such a world-wide activity, for truly one might say that these are the World's Series, and that not with any disparagement to our own baseball Series. There's humor inherent as well, but truly not to distract from the reality that goes with the Games, the reality of athletic competition, with a sense of beauty, one might almost say.

Yes, there's humor. Fencing now judged electronically, with wired suits. Perspiration from the contestants so great that it kept shocking the fencers, and registering touches, when none obtained. There's good humor a' plenty, like the member of a team who was bent on collecting as many of the team pins of other countries as possible, and always found a seat on the bus or the street car. One of the pins collected was for diabled war vets, giving them such priority!

Only word for the facilities is "magnificent" with great thought and care displayed. Swimming events . . . couple of practice pools for warm-up purposes . . . two pools for the events . . . an eight-lane racing pool, and adjacent to it, the diving pool, with one and three metre boards, and five and ten metre diving platforms. Beautiful, blue water. 20,000 spectators can view the events.

The Games, and they should indeed be spelled with large and florid capitals, are well under way. Organization is truly great, with every possible gadget to further the viewing as well as the contestants. In the great stadium where the track and field events take place, there are two huge boards that give every bit of data that can be imagined, supplemented with further data boards at points such as the broad jump, hammer throw, and the like.

In the case of the swimming stadium, there is the one large board at the end, which registers everything, including the diving judges' decisions, which are registered electronically after each dive, giving the number of the judge, as well as his score, the final score for the dive, and the total to date. Quite an innovation!

Our Equestrian Team members are quietly going about their last conditioning and schooling activities, with relatively light work, for the big days start Monday, and run all through to the end of the Games. Work usually starts in the early hours of the morning, in order to avoid the heat as much as possible. Official drawings took place for position yesterday. Here's the order we go in: Grande Dressage, "Trish" Galvin, 2, and Newberry, 12. The Three-Day drew number 1 position. The individual jumping is in number 4 position, while the Team Jumping, for the Prize of Nations, with which event the Games close, gave us number 14. In view of the difference in time, you'll have the results every morning.

Team party at the Ambassador's the other night, plus a number of other visitors, at their official residence, the Villa Taverna. Beautiful grounds, with the live oaks virtually forming a roof overhead. In the garden. where this was held, concealed lighting reflecting from the trees gave a sense of lightness and feeling and color. The gardens lovely indeed, having been restored from the old original plans by Mrs. Zellerbach.

Good sportsmanship so generally displayed, with applause for one's own country. Also hearty acclaim for an outstanding performance by another competitor. Some 6,000 athletes, from 87 nations. More Americans seeing the Events than ever before in history.

FROM A LIBRARIAN'S NOTEBOOK

By Ruth Galvin Thornburg

This library is in the act of beginning two memorial collections and winding up a third. We try to do these things with thought and careful planning because we want to include only books of lasting value. The collection of reference books in memory of Lee Olds Kellogg and his two sisters is almost completed. We are just beginning to purchase books for the Hiller collection and the collection of books in memory of Hazel Watrous.

The books to be purchased in memory of Miss Rachel Hiller are to be in the field of world affairs, and the first one to go out for circulation is As Others See Us, the United States Through Foreign Eyes, which was edited by Franz M. Joseph. The editor asked three questions of twenty different representatives of foreign countries and it may be that their twenty answers which comprise this book could revolutionize our beliefs about our prestige abroad or the lack of it. Mr. Joseph is an international lawyer who believes that understanding could come through a frank exchange of opinions and criticisms and this book is his effort along that line.

The Hiller collection is made possible by means of a generous gift from Mrs. Willard W. Wheeler. Friends of Miss Hiller and persons interested in world affairs have been asked to suggest titles for inclusion in the collection. Another book now on order which is soon to be published is the Worldmark Encyclopedia of the Nations. This large book will contain basic geographic, historical, political, cultural and economic information about all the nations of the world, or at least 118 of them. It is probable that such a book would best serve the community by being in the reference collection.

The books in memory of Hazel Watrous are to be purchased from funds left to the library in the will of the late Dene Denny. She specified that the books were to be in the related fields of art, architecture, sculpture, music and theatre. The first book in the collection is Stage Scenery by A. S. Gillette, who is Director of the University Theatre at the State University of Iowa. The book is slanted toward the student or more inexperienced scene builder, but is technical enough to be used with profit in live theatres in this area. It is illustrated with 103 very graphic plates, and has a dictionary of theatre terms and a good index. Incidentally, this book was published by Harpers, who used a very readable type and an open spaced plan of printing which is a joy to read and use. Right now may we offer you the opportunity to recommend titles for this collection. We do not promise to purchase all recommended titles, but we do promise to consider them. These memorial funds carry over from year to year, and never do we hurry the spending of such funds.

We have the usual group of good new books this week. Consult the typed lists on the bulletin board to find one which interests you. Ruth Galvin Thornburg, librarian.

Rev. Wellbourn

The Reverend John Armistead Wellbourn died in Florida on September 1 after a period of failing health. His home was in Leesburg, Virginia.

Mr. Wellbourn lived in Carmel from 1946-1954 while his son-in-law, the Reverend Alfred B. Seccombe, was rector of All Saints' Episcopal Church.

He was a missionary in Japan from 1899-1927, then retired. He also served on the faculty of St. Paul's University, Tokyo.

Survivors are his wife, Margaret; his daughter, Mrs. Seccombe; a son; and several grandchildren.

Funeral services were held in Leesburg in the Episcopal Church on Saturday.

Chodorov Farce Opens This Week End At Circle Theatre

The most indispensable item in a psychiatrist's office is a box of kleenex, according to Edward Chodorov, author of the Broadway comedy, Oh, Men! Oh, Women! The first act of his play consists of two sessions on a psychoanalyst's couch, during which the patients shed tears while relating their troubles. Tears of laughter were shed during these same scenes by audiences in New York, Chicago, Los Angeles and San Francisco. Carmel will see it for six weeks at the Circle Theatre, where it opens tomorrow evening.

Chodorov is the author of a long string of Broadway hits which began with the production of Wonder Boy in 1931. This thinly veiled portrait of the youthful dynamo Jed Harris was produced in New York by none other than Harris himself. The popular melodrama, Kind Lady, also came from his typewriter, as have many films during the past three decades. His brother, Jerome Chodorov, is co-author of such outstanding successes as My Sister Eileen, Junior Miss, Anniversary Waltz and Wonderful Town.

Reinhold Meric is the most recent addition to the cast of the Circle production. Marcia Rider, Mike Smith, Paul Fiske, Claranne Nigg, Robin Davey and Jerry Zellhoefer comprise the technical crew that will pilot the farce through three stage settings accompanied by a number of comic special effects.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERMON

God's promises to mankind are being substantiated today through scientific understanding of Spirit. This is a theme of the Lesson-Sermon on "Substance" which will be read this Sunday at all Christian Science churches.

Experiences of three men who received the fulfillment of divine promises—Abraham, Moses, and Zacharias—will be featured in the Bible readings, which also include this verse from Isaiah: "For the mountains shall depart, and the hills be removed; but my kindness shall not depart from thee, neither shall the covenant of my peace be removed, saith the Lord that hath mercy on thee" (54:10).

Among passages to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy is the following (491:12): "It is only by acknowledging the supremacy of Spirit, which annuls the claims of matter, that mortals can lay off mortality and find the indissoluble spiritual link which establishes man forever in the divine likeness, inseparable from his creator."

Class Of 1960 Off To College

Last June 152 members of the Class of 1960 at Carmel High School marched down the aisle of King Hall at the Naval Postgraduate School, all together for the last time at graduation.

This year they will be scattered on college campuses throughout the United States. Departures have been taking place for the past two weeks with "See you at Christmas," and, "Good luck," the farewell cries.

Following is an account of where some of last year's Carmel High graduates will spend this year.

Jim Aitken, Bert Blanks, Janel Smith and Jean Fehring will study at Chico State College; Kathleen Aldrich, Phyllis Clayton and Ethel Prowell at the University of California at Davis; Nancy Alexander, San Jose City College; Mike Bein and Alfred Dopico, Sacramento Junior College; Mary Buffington and Mary Weisiger, College of the Pacific.

Two members of the class arrived home from a summer in Europe just in time to repack their bags for college. They were Annabelle Herbert who will attend Willamette University in Oregon and Gay Fremier who will spend this year on the Santa Barbara campus of the University of California.

Dick Goularte has left to don the uniform of The Citadel, military college in South Carolina. Chips Wood is at Wesleyan University, Connecticut, after a summer in France. Joey Foster will be a freshman at Amherst College, Massachusetts. Boz Williams enters Harvard University and Ciji Ware, Radcliffe College, women's Harvard affiliate, both in Cambridge, Massachusetts.

Roddy McArthur is entering Colorado College for Women; Sydney Leonard, Finch College in New York; Wendy Wiegman, Stephens College, Columbia, Missouri, and Todd Wiekhorst, Whitman College in Walla Walla, Washington.

The University of California contingent is large this year. Freshmen in Berkeley from the Class of 1960 will be Peter de Petra, Carla Wagenman, Elizabeth van Loben Sels, Pat Giarratana, Suzi Smith, Ellen McKelvey, Cecelia Pilone, Frank Palmer, Randi Randolph, Bill True, Toby Edson, Jeff Bannister, Mike Cook, Bonnie White, Linda Stager, Mary Ann Purvis.

Rooters on the opposite side of the stadium at Big Game this year will be Stanford freshmen, Nicki Wilson, Tom Green, John Vail and Jim Woolfenden.

Colleges in Southern California will be attended by Jennie Hill, Class of 1960 valedictorian, and Eric Norberg, both enrolled at Pomona; Patty Lynn Thorndike, Occidental; Elizabeth Kibler, and Pam Perry, University of California at Riverside.

Bob Paul and Charlie Rogers will be Cal Poly students in San Luis Obispo. Richard Fraser will be at Humboldt State College in Arcata. Marcia Hellam is enrolled at San Francisco State College; Diane Miller, Shirley Flint, Richard James and Martin McAulay, San Jose State College. Carolyn Burde will attend the University of Nevada; Denise Scott, Mills College; Buddy Steffen, Hartnell College; Loleen Funk, Munson's School for Private Secretaries in San Francisco; Ron Faia and Ann Del Carlo, Oregon State College.

Knights Staying In Australia

Mr. and Mrs. John Chitwood report that a postcard sent them from Mrs. Allen Knight who is on a round the world trip with Mr. Knight and their son, Buz, reports them in Melbourne, where they have taken a cottage and plan to remain for a while before continuing their journey. Several weeks ago the Chitwoods received another card from Allen Knight, posted in Kobe, Japan.

Violin Program At Town House

Louis Fragos, violinist and teacher, whose program pleased the Carmel Foundation Town House audience last summer, will be heard again at Town House on Wednesday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock. Mr. Fragos will be accompanied by Mrs. Howard Marshall. He will play the works of Telleman, Bach, Gluck, Mozart and Bloch.

Tea will be served at the conclusion of the program.

Woman's Club Pre-Rummage Tea

Members are urged to "wear their rummage" to the meeting of the Carmel Woman's Club on Monday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock. A floor prize will be given for the most imaginative costume. The tea, in charge of the hospitality chairman, Mrs. Carl Rasmussen, assisted by Mrs. John J. Adams, Mrs. Ferris Bagley, Mrs. Edwin Bidwell, Mrs. Donald Walker and Mrs. Fred Farr, will be preceded by a showing of the film Wake Up or Blow Up distributed by World Neighbors, Inc., and featuring the work of Dr. Frank C. Laubach, through the courtesy of Arthur Porter. Flower arrangements will be by Mrs. F. L. Knudsen.

Mrs. Raymond Conan, chairman of rummage, is featuring a Creative Craft Corner for this year's sale on September 21. It will be in the patio, chairman, Mrs. Dorothy Powers. Peninsula artists have donated canvases and there will be a variety of other attractions, including flower decorations and Della Robbia wreaths. Another new feature is a Snack Bar to be managed by Mrs. George K. Meyer. Other section chairmen are: Mrs. Conrad Imelman, white elephant; Mrs. S. B. Moore, furniture and rugs; Mrs. H. B. Eckert, linens; Mrs. Eleanor Davis, pictures, mirrors, lamps; Miss Lucy Mills, books; Miss Gretchen Wahl, purses, gloves, accessories; Mrs. George Baxter, children's wear; Mrs. L. M. King, men's wear; Mrs. Walter Adams, new table; Mrs. E. H. Ewig, dresses, suits, coats; Mrs. F. L. Knudsen, hats, shoes; Mrs. Leland Paul, blouses, sweaters, playsuits; Mrs. E. M. Beecher, jewelry; Mrs. Arthur Templeman, games and toys, Mrs. Carl Rasmussen, garden plants and furniture; Mrs. Lucile Capen, grocery basket; Mrs. George K. Meyer, food; Mrs. Eva L. Dunbar, poster placement; Mrs. C. U. Fonteneau, kitchenware, Miss Mabel Steen, lingerie; Mrs. Arthur Porter, publicity; Miss Marie Rasmussen, treasurer.

Flying To Cleveland

L. S. Stallings flew to Cleveland, Ohio, today to visit his son, Thomas, and meet his four-months-old grandson, Tommy, for the first time. He will renew acquaintance with Tommy's sisters, Eloise, eight, and Claudia, ten.

Mr. Stallings has not been East for ten years. Before coming home he will go to Washington, D. C. to meet Mrs. Stallings' sister, Mrs. Helen C. Leahy, and drive back with her to Carmel. Mrs. Leahy plans an indefinite stay here.

Mrs. Stallings will be in charge of Stallings Stamp Shop on Dolores Street while her husband is away.

Wreck In Yellowstone

Mrs. John Rennels, got her children, Susan and Johnny, home in Carmel in time to start school on Tuesday in spite of having to leave her wrecked automobile near Yellowstone National Park.

Mrs. Rennels and the children, who spent the summer in Minnesota, were driving home by way of Yellowstone when their car skidded on a wet road in the park, hit a boulder, flipped over, landed 20 feet below the road in the river. No one was badly injured, so Mrs. Rennels and the children took the train the rest of the way home.

She learned before she left West Yellowstone that three hours later another car skidded at the same spot and was badly damaged.

MRS. VAN LOBEN SELS TAKEN TO HOSPITAL

Volunteer members of the Carmel Fire Department answered a medical emergency call at 8:05 o'clock this morning and took Mrs. W. E. van Loben Sels, Carmelo and Seventh, to the Peninsula Community Hospital Annex.

Her condition was reported as "quite comfortable" later this morning.

Shelby Pinkston

Shelby Jackson Pinkston, 54, a resident of Carmel for 35 years, died this morning in a local hospital after a brief illness.

For the past 26 years Mr. Pinkston has been employed by Del Monte Properties. His home was at Serra and Camino del Monte. He was a World War II veteran. Grand, Oklahoma, was his birthplace.

Survivors are his wife, Lucille, proprietor of the Tuck Box Restaurant; two sisters, Mrs. Arthur Morris of Seaside, and Mrs. Oma Rapholtz of Sanger; a brother, Thomas Pinkston of Hanford; and several nieces and nephews living on the Monterey Peninsula and in Fresno.

Funeral services will be held at 9:00 o'clock on Monday morning in the Paul Funeral Chapel, Pacific Grove, with Dr. William Sweeting of the First Baptist Church, Monterey, officiating.

Burial will be in the family plot in Sanger Cemetery in Fresno County.

Monterey Peninsula Jehovah's Witnesses Go To Convention

Jehovah's Witnesses from the Monterey Peninsula will be in San Jose this weekend where they will be delegates to their three-day circuit assembly at the Municipal Baseball Park. An attendance of over 1,500 from the 20 congregations between Menlo Park and King City is expected.

Henry Nordstrom, presiding minister of the local congregation, announced that no meetings will be held at the Monterey Kingdom Hall during the convention.

Nordstrom said the program will start at 7:00 Friday evening, with sessions and field ministry each day concluding Sunday at 6:00 o'clock. Special Bible talks, discussions, and demonstrations will aid the individual ministers to improve their preaching and teaching activity. "Jehovah's Witnesses feel that increased Bible knowledge is the great need of our time", he explained. Nordstrom pointed out that their preaching fellowship has grown to nearly one million in the 176 lands where the Witnesses are active.

VALLEY CAR ACCIDENT

The identity of a driver, critically injured in an accident on the Carmel Valley Road, puzzled California Highway Patrol officers this morning.

The accident occurred at ten minutes to 1:00, three-tenths of a mile west of Los Laureles Road. The driver, going west, failed to make a turn, hit the right shoulder of the roadway, crossed the road to the left, hit a utility pole, then took out 30 feet of fence belonging to S. F. B. Morse.

Papers on the driver indicated he was R. N. Langley, San Leandro. However, a Rancho Del Monte key found in his pocket supposedly belonged to Harry Kern, San Leandro, registered at the Carmel Valley resort in accommodations corresponding to the key number. The driver was in critical condition and could not be questioned.

Later this morning the injured man was able to talk to Highway Patrol officers and stated he was R. H. Langley.

FREE SHOWING OF CHANEY CLASSIC AT MPC

The late Lon Chaney's most popular motion picture, The Hunchback of Notre Dame, will open the fall series of fine film showings at Monterey Peninsula College on Friday evening, September 9.

Made in 1922, the film is the only American picture in the series. One of its big scenes is that in which the hunchback, characterized by the unforgettable "man of a thousand faces," pours molten lead upon the heads of a raging mob.

The balance of the year's program will include Road to Life (Russian, 1931), October 15; Metropolis (Germany, 1926), November 18; Life Begins Tomorrow (France, 1951), December 16, and Miracle in Milan (Italy, 1952), January 6.

Unless otherwise announced, all films will be shown in the Armory on the MPC campus at 8:00 o'clock and the public is invited to attend without charge.

SYMPHONY MEETS NEW CONDUCTOR NEXT WEEK

After a party for orchestra members tomorrow evening, the Monterey County Symphony Orchestra will get down to business next week under its new resident conductor, Ronald Ondrejka.

Ondrejka has asked that all former orchestra members and players interested in joining meet with him for informal group auditions on Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock in Sunset Auditorium.

Any player not able to attend auditions should telephone the orchestra manager, Louise Vadetsky, at FR 5-7032.

First full orchestra rehearsal will take place Wednesday, September 14, at 7:30 o'clock in the music room at Carmel High School. Regular rehearsals will be held thereafter on Monday nights in Sunset Auditorium.

A pre-season orchestra party to introduce Ondrejka to the musicians will be given tomorrow from 5:30 to 7:00 o'clock at 800 Cannery Row in Monterey.

At a meeting of the Symphony Association board with Ondrejka last week, plans for the coming season were discussed and the following dates set for the Peninsula concert series: October 25, December 6, March 14 and May 16. The December concert will take place in the Opera House in Monterey, others at Sunset Auditorium. In addition, the Board decided to accept a bid for the orchestra to appear next spring as an attraction of the King City Community Concerts series. A similar offer from San Luis Obispo was declined.

Programs and soloists for the season will be announced shortly, when the Association launches its annual ticket and membership drive.

Carmel Bed Tax Depends On Other Peninsula Cities

ministration committee has certainly not abandoned a search for reduction of costs in the budget in an effort to tighten the 21-cent gap between the city's present income and its budgeted expenses which will be bridged by property tax increase.

Talk about the increase in traffic fines was brisk before and after the council accepted the report saying the increase would multiply police problems and contribute to irritation all around. Councilman Chitwood said he didn't like the idea of a fine as a revenue measure. Councilman Norberg put in a plug for a motel tax instead. Chitwood added that parking meters would solve everything. Councilman Whitaker said that since the proposal had originally come from the student government session, he saw no reason for levity. And Chitwood said "who's being funny? I'm so serious about this I would have walked out if the council had voted the 50-cent increase."

Caught up in an administrative snag which has delayed setting a hearing on the city's new zoning ordinance, the council instead paved the way for the ordinance by setting a public hearing Monday evening, September 19, at 8:00 o'clock, on an amendment of the municipal code which would eliminate mailing of notices to property owners when the city begins reclassification of property.

The council, in other action, reversed a Planning Commission decision denying Sidney Dibble the right to convert a landscaped area into parking space at his Wayfarer Inn, Fourth and San Carlos, and also granted him a variance for a 23-feet wide driveway in space now occupied by a loading zone. The action will result in three off-street parking spaces for the inn, a net gain of one with the elimination of the two existing spaces in the loading zone.

Councilmen held a thorough and time-consuming discussion on whether or not to renew the lease of the Forest Theater-in-the-Ground, which expired June 30 this year, before the theater group or the city has had a chance to meet fire and safety requirements there. Motions were made and withdrawn at least twice and the council decided to delay action on the lease.

Mrs. Patricia Hall appeared for the theater group, explaining that it would have to depend on the city for funds needed to improve the safety conditions and equipment.

Other actions taken by the council included:

Adoption of an ordinance providing that new buildings in the business district be provided with alternate underground telephone leads.

Held a first reading of an ordinance providing that sidewalk tree-planting squares in the business district be an average of 25 feet apart and eight square feet in area.

Continued an ordinance to adjust residential driveway grades.

Instructed City Attorney John Morse to prepare an ordinance providing compensation of fire department members with salary instead of time off for holidays.

Adopted as an omnibus resolution four itemized resolutions calling for employment of Richard DeAmaral as a cement finisher, achievement of regular status for Police Officer Walter S. Bailey, transfer of $14 from the general to the deposit fund and transfer of $90 deposit on a business license from the deposit to the general fund.

Asked the committee on lands and improvements to obtain price quotations on stage and lighting improvements at the Forest Theater.

Adopted a committee report asking the city to spend $500 for acquisition of a natural park site at Mission and Third to be zoned P-1.

Moved adoption of a public welfare committee report asking a letter be sent to Monterey County Coop Council indicating interest in extended extraterritorial authrity for cities.

Recommended low trimming of shrubbery, if feasible as a solution to a proposal to replant Ocean Avenue parkway from Mission to Junipero with low-lying shrubs to improve traffic visibility.

Adopted a report of the lands and improvements committee recommending a pedestrian island on the south side of Junipero at Ocean.

Asked the committee on administration to set a meeting for council and local heads of the telephone and power companies to discuss converting overhead service lines to an underground system.

Relocated a bus loading zone at the northwest corner of Mission and Ocean Avenues after moving it temporarily while Carmel Plaza was under construction.

Authorized purchase of a car radio for the assistant fire chief.

Authorized purchase of a motorcycle and lease purchase (if possible) of a cement saw.

Agreed to police commissioner's plans to participate in state-aided police training for cities meeting requirements.

Adopted a report asking Carmel Board of Realtors to appraise value of city lands and improvements exclusive of city hall improvements (which were appraised in 1957.)

Granted the Crocker-Anglo Bank permission to replace a Bank of Carmel sign with a new sign meeting requirements of the planning commission. The sign would be limited to 16 square feet.

Moved that a residue of $58.93 left in a Civil Defense salvage fund raised during World War II and used in later years for the Ground Observer Corps be applied toward a request for $60 for support of a Civil Defense Information Center.

Agreed to an administration committee report continuing the Forest Commission to December, 1962.

Took notice of business license location transfers for T. M. Watt (Lords and Lads Shop) from Ocean and Monte Verde to Ocean and Junipero, Norman Mortensen (Copenhagen Restaurant) from Lincoln between Seventh and Ocean to Fourth between Mission and San Carlos, and Ada E. Jensen (Ada's Resell Store) from 5th between San Carlos and Mission to Mission between 5th and 6th.

Also took notice of transfer of business license ownership from Cush Walker (The Center Gallery) to Dorothy Steck Beech.

Approved sign requests from George Gandzjuk (The Beachcomber), Dina Marine (Fleur de Lys) and Virginia H. Burk (Carmel Wine Shop.)

Speaking during the council's section on its agenda for commissioners' reports, Councilman Whitaker listed for discussion three encroachments on city sidewalks, the chimney at the Hearthstone restaurant, the steps of The Good Wine Shop, and the entrance and hand rails of "a real estate office just up the street." Councilman Chitwood explained that the Hearthstone had changed its encroachment to meet council requests several years ago.

The council moved to require the business on the southeast corner of Monte Verde and Ocean (the wine shop), however, to make the usual agreement with the city to hold the latter blameless in any accident resulting from the encroachment, backed up by a certificate of insurance.

Among a list of council actions continued to September 19, was the pending acquisition of beach lands south of Santa Lucia from a private owner who cannot yet issue title to the land until probating of a will, court costs of which may be paid by the city.

During a suspension in last night's agenda, councilmen adopted a committee report asking the street department to construct a detention cage at one of the city corporation yards meeting requirements of the county pound master, for temporary confinement of animals running at large in Carmel. Councilman Chitwood, speaking in behalf of the police department, said the need for the cage has become particularly pressing since the department's several harrowing and odorous experiences confining dogs at the police station.

Other action while the agenda was suspended included passage of resolutions advancing Police Officer James H. Rutledge from Step 2, Range 45, to Step 3, Range 45, and establishing a 20-minute loading (green) zone on the south side of Ocean at the Junipero intersection.

It referred to the police department for necessary action a request from Robert Spencer on behalf of the Carmel Business Association to close Fifth Street between Dolores and San Carlos from 6:00-9:00 o'clock the evening of September 12, for the dedication and open house in the new post office addition.

55 Ask For Change In City Truck Route

on the uphill climb leave Carmel along the present route.

"There is constant danger to the many families, especially children, who walk along these narrow streets to and from Carmel's shops, schools and stores each day."

A number of the residents are planning to write individual letters to the council in addition to signing the petition.

The truck route leading into town: down Carpenter to Second; down Second to Santa Fe and along Santa Fe to Third, down Third to Junipero and out Junipero.

Going out of town: up Junipero to Fourth, along Fourth to Torres, then to Third and out by the entrance route.

Olivia Young To Conduct Evening Poetry Workshop

The Carmel Adult School is again offering beginning and working poets the opportunity to participate in the Poetry Workshop at Sunset School. This workshop, conducted by Mrs. Olivia Young, begins Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock in Room 8.

"The poet, in order to be understood, must give to his writing the same skill and precision as that given by the artist to his canvas," Mrs. Young points out. "This skill is the technique of word relationships, structure, form, rhythm, rime—colors on the poetic palette. Class discussions relate these important techniques to the mood and theme of the content. There is much stimulation and incentive to create, in studying together."

An invitation is extended to those writers who wish to brush up on technique, and to those others who have never written, but wish they could.
